Re: Comey's 'Leaked' Memo

You're a hypocrite, trump*, by accusing FBI Director Comey that his 'leaked' memo contained classified information. This is not true: the single memo he released contained no classified information although his other memos may have.

But you, in your infinite ignorance and stupidity, leaked highly classified information to the Russian ambassador in a WH meeting. Just to make sure you understand, trump*, you gave Russia classified information that was provided by Israel and was NOT for public distribution.

Putie gave you a #broJob - and you'd rather play friendly with Russia. And insult your NATO friends. You've isolated the United States - and shown extremely poor leadership (actually, none) on anything you touch. In six months, you've destroyed the US' credibility and standing around the world.

And all for a #broJob with Putie.

You're the president of the Deplorables - but not me and the majority of Americans who did NOT vote for you. You are deplorable. Pathetic. Sad. Loser. Liar. Sleazy. Dishonorable.

[*Russia is coming.]
