Speaker Ryan:

Re: House Intelligence Committee Integrity Compromised

Nunes has no credibility, having wagged his tail with trump* .

This is a serious matter, Mr Ryan. We have evidence by all our intelligence agencies that Russia affected our 2016 election. You know this - but you shield this very serious issue by supporting the current chairman of the Intel Committee.

You have turned this into a political issue: you want to shield trump* and avoid the Russian connection. There's too much smoke...

Russia is coming.
