President Trump:

Re: Islam

In the United States, we consider a person innocent unless proven guilty. Yet you have, with a broad brush, painted every Muslim as a potential terrorist. This is not right nor is it correct.

We already have an immigration policy that fully vets incoming refugees - and it's proven successful.

We have freedom of religion in the US, so do not single out Islam as an abhorrent religion, waiting in the wings to undertake some dastardly deed. You are the racist, in this case.

You wouldn't imprison all Christians just because some right-wing extremist murdered a doctor who provided abortions. Why implicate Islam just because some of their adherents are radical jihadists?

And how do you explain your denigration of Khizr and Ghizala Khan, the Muslim parents of an Army officer who died defending American soldiers. You displayed a complete insensitivity to this Gold Star family. You should be ashamed. Have you taken Mr Khan's advice and read our Constitution?

Show some understanding of American history rather than catering to the lowest common denominator of hate and fear.
