Re: Muslim Ban

Noone disputes the authority of the President to protect the security of the US and to direct immigration policies.

But, duuuhhhhh, it MUST be constitutional. You, by your own words, said it was for a “complete shutdown of Muslims visiting America”. Hello, trump, that is focusing on religion - and even a stupid high school student knows that.

Fortunately, the 9th Circuit Court knows about the Constitution: you lost 3-0. Take a hint; better yet, take a walk and hunker down with your deplorables.

You are ignorant of the Constitution. Khizr Khan was right: you’ve never read the US Constitution, you don’t understand it and, methinks, you don’t even care. Sad. Pathetic.

You are the most ignorant President this country has ever elected - and you’ve convinced everyone in three short weeks.

Here’s how you can make America great again: take the enclosed toilet paper and do a self-flush.
