Re:Just About Everyone Would Have Taken the Meeting'

Don't include me in your blanket assertion that "...just about anyone would have taken the meeting...". I would not have taken the meeting REPEAT I would not have taken the meeting.

You have no concept of morality or integrity. You cheat to win - and are proud of it. Where's your integrity with those 3,000+ lawsuits that you left behind? Where's your integrity when you grab women's genitals with impunity? Where's your integrity when Russia offers you damaging information on Secretary Clinton?

You are a poor example for our nation's children. You are corrupt and a poor role model for our nation. You are a pathetic, inarticulate boor, bringing disgrace to the Office of the Presidency.

Use the enclosed toilet paper and do a self-flush to rid America of your trashy presidency.

[*Russia is coming.]
