Re: Thug in Chief

You're a thug, trump*, plain and simple. A schoolyard bully who cannot take criticism - but is an expert in being rude and crude.

Let me count the ways...1) you intimidated FBI Director Comey by threatening him with the possibility of tape recordings 2) you grab women's pussies 'on demand' and with no apology 3) you bullied Megyn Kelly because you didn't like her questions 4) you made offensive remarks about Mika Brezninski and Joe Scarborough because you don't like what they say about you (hmmm...the truth is very compelling, isn't it?) 4) you build walls to keep people out, eg, the Mexican border wall and now 'only close family' members can visit re your immigration ban, excluding grandparents, uncles and in-laws 5) your budget proposal throws out Meals on Wheels because it doesn't make a profit - you are so tough, picking on the elderly and disabled 6) you trim Medicaid by $800B - and give money to the rich by repealing a tax to help pay for healthcare.

As I said, you're a thug, plain and simple.

America's standing and values that we have long promulgated around the world have plummeted because of you. You yell from the highest tower 'America has to be first', showing how little you care about sharing. You're a selfish taker, hardly a giver.

You are unqualified, both in temperament and intelligence, to be President. You're a loser. Pathetic. Sad.

Are you going to suck up to Putie at the G20 so you can score brownie points? Are you going to challenge him about meddling in the 2016 election? Or thank him?

You're a boorish, poor example of American leadership. You've make America dirty again by your presence and example. You're a thug, trump*. Go to Russia and play prickie with Putie.

Enclosed is some toilet paper - do a self-flush...#makeAmericaCleanAgain.

[*Russia is coming.]
