Re: Wiretap lie Libels President Obama

With malicious intent and without regard to any known facts, you falsely accused President Obama of wiretapping (in this case, your quotation-marks defense has no merit) you; furthermore, you insulted him by referring to him as a “bad (or sick) guy”).

You are a jealous, spiteful man, incapable of compassion, integrity or morality. You have the world’s most far-reaching, knowledgeable intelligence community at your beck and call; yet, you use a Fox news commentator to justify your libelous claim.

How pathetic. Sad. Disgusting. Unworthy of a president.

You know that you colluded with the Russians re the hacking. “OK, give me the election, Putie - and I’ll ignore Ukraine and, as a bonus, I’ll drop the sanctions.”

You don’t want that to be found out, do you, trummpie*? You certainly don’t want us to know that, do you? So distract, distract and more distract. When are you going to pull your pants down? Now that would be the ultimate distraction!
